

A Girl from Glen Innes – 2010 Update

A DVD developed for use with the NZ Social Studies curriculum, Years 8 -13.

The story of teenager Tinmama Oo and her journey from Burmese refugee to New Zealand citizen, now features a Bonus Update filmed on Tinmama's graduation day, one of the best days of her life.

Catch up with Tinmama as she talks about her life, what graduation means to her, her Kiwi identity, and the ongoing fight for democracy in Burma.

Also on the DVD, “A Girl from Glen Innes”. Filmed when she was in her final year of high school, Tinmama tells her own story about arriving in Auckland as a 13-year-old refugee and how she has embraced life in New Zealand.

Tinmama talks to her mother about the democracy uprising in Burma and why the family fled. She returns to the Mangere Refugee Resettlement Centre and meets people helping refugees settle here. Her interview with former Prime Minister Helen Clark places the family's experience within the framework of the international Refugee Convention and our refugee quota system.

The newly released DVD includes the original 2004 video (28 mins) and the bonus 2010 update (10 mins).

A Study Guide is available featuring curriculum links, fact sheets and photos.

What teachers say about “A Girl from Glen Innes”:

“Invaluable coverage” “Perfect for the study of refugees and study of development of NZ identity.” “A terrific resource... presented from a teenager’s perspective!”
